VARIOUS ANCIENT AND MODERN RELIGIONS OF ASIA.

Sacred Scriptures of the Hindoos, the Persians, the Chinese, and the Mussulans-Volumes of Eastern Theology.

In all the great countries of the East, and in some small ones, there is an ancient religion, a mediawal one, and a moore one. In India the natives even use the same words as we have the natives even use the same words as we have the natives even use the same words as we have the natives even use the same words as we have have a consequently. The press of Carboides and Protestants as glibly as if they were Christians, the words being applied to their own seets. Indeed, they have rationalistic sects related to their Protestantism much as the Unitarians are to ordinary denoninations among ourselves. Consequently, the races in question have not recent probetic and apostolic writings; thirdly, their commentaries, controversial works, and general philosophy and literature.

Taking India, then, we begin with what is essential to acquaintance with its oldest across which may be obtained, as translated by Max Muller and by Prof. Cowell, for about three dollars each, and which are quite as much as any general reader can require.
